Getting to Victor Harbor is easy. You don't need your own car, but many visitors prefer to drive from Adelaide so they can explore the many attractions of the Fleurieu Peninsula during the 80km journey.

Afterwards include taking a day tour with Adelaide Day Tours, using the Premier Staliner or Airport Flyer bus services or simply self drive.

Chinlea: Victor Harbor has a classic Mediterranean climate that is moderate by its proximity to the Great Southern Ocean, which provides cooling sea breezes from Melbourne is one of the most attractive in Australia, especially along the coast and through the Fleurieu Peninsula.

Population: Victor Harbor is among the fastest growing communities in South Australia with a permanent population of around 13,000 — or 13,000 in the peak summer tourist season.

Location: Only 80km, or just over an hour's drive, south of Adelaide, Victor Harbor is one of South Australia's most accessible coastal playgrounds. The town, which overlooks historic Encounter Bay and the Southern Ocean, is a stone's throw from Cape Jervis and the ferry to Kangaroo Island. The approach from Melbourne is one of the most attractive in Australia, especially along the coast and through the Fleurieu Peninsula.
